BUNDABERG HOCKEY ASSOCIATION

The Bundaberg Hockey Association is committed to forming partnerships with organisations and brands that embody similar values and appreciates you taking the time to read through this prospectus.

History:

Bundaberg Hockey has been part of the Bundaberg community since 1933 and has a rich history locally and further afield. The current hockey facilities and clubhouse are situated in Thornhill Street, North Bundaberg. The facility has four grass fields and one artificial surface. The Association runs a local competition and caters for all age groups from juniors through to our more senior players. In 2017 the Association had approximately 370 playing members.

We currently have five clubs/branches that participate in our local competition. All Blacks Hockey Club, Arrows Hockey Branch, Waves Cities Hockey Club, Raiders Hockey Branch and Rovers Hockey Branch. Bundaberg Hockey is actively involved with representative hockey sending teams and supporting players to attend Wide Bay Zones, State, National and International level.

Our passion and commitment since our inception has produce and developed many successful players over the years reaching to the highest levels in our sport. Two of our most well-known products that have played for the Australian Kookaburra's are Troy Elder (2004 Athens Olympic Gold Medallist) and Aaron Kleinschmidt (Winners of the World Champions Cup 2017) and selected for the 2018 Commonwealth games.

Our Mission:

The Bundaberg Hockey Association is a community-based sporting organisation focussed on engaging with and developing hockey players and lifelong connections from the Bundaberg Region, while promoting hockey at the grass roots and elite level.

Our Vision:

To be recognised within the Bundaberg and Wide Bay region bringing players and community together with a family orientated environment and upholding professionalism and integrity as core values of our Association.

OurGoals:

To develop players through our junior modified platform to represent Bundaberg Hockey beginning at all junior age groups right through to senior grades, state and international level. To develop and maintain the best hockey playing and training facilities in Bundaberg and Wide Bay Region. To engage with the Bundaberg Community so to ensure all hockey players living in the Bundaberg region area aspire to play for our Association.

Code of behaviour – coaches, managers, team officials

As a coach, manager or team official selected to represent BHA in an event that is conducted or sanctioned by BHA you must meet the following requirements with regard to your conduct.

1. Treat all players with respect at all times.
